How to Resolve Conflict God's Way

By Kyle Rye

Conflict is inevitable but conflict itself is not something that should frighten us. God knew conflict existed, and, therefore, He provided us with everything we need to know about handling it. In Matthew 18:15-17 Jesus identified a three-step process for handling conflict that involves sin. It is a process that hinges on the first step, which says, "If your brother sins, go and show him his fault in private; if he listens to you, you have won your brother." All too often this step is ignored in favor of taking the matter to the elders or avoiding the situation altogether. But if we're going to handle conflict God's way then we have to be willing to engage in private confrontation. Here are ten steps for how to engage in one on one confrontation.

1. Prepare with prayer (Matthew 5:44).
2. Get the Facts (Exodus 20:16; Proverbs 20:19). Know the truth before you approach the individual. Don't be guilty of false accusations.
3. Examine yourself (Matthew 7:3-5). Make sure you're not guilty of living in sin before you confront someone who is.
4. Don't wait (Ephesians 4:26; Matthew 5:23-24). In other words, don't let the emotions fester longer than is necessary to complete the previous steps.
5. Understand the goal of the confrontation – to win back your brother or sister (Matthew 18:5). Do not pursue any other agendas.
6. Meet in person. Jesus instructs us to "go" to the person (Matthew 18:15). Don't use texts, emails, or phone calls because they are impersonal and prevent you from hearing tone or seeing body language.
7. Affirm the relationship. Make sure the individual knows that you care about him or her (Matthew 22:39; 1 John 4:20).
8. Approach honestly but lovingly (Ephesians 4:15).
9. Be willing to listen (Proverbs 18:13; James 1:19).
10. Be prepared to forgive (Matthew 18:21-35).

Tammie and Gary Criswell will fly to Hawaii for two weeks on Thursday morning. Please pray for safe travels.

Johnny Waldroup had a heart Cath on Thursday. They saw no blockages so he can be rescheduled for knee replacement.

Elders & Deacons Meeting's

The Elders plan to have monthly meetings with the Deacons. The Ministers are of course also invited. The meetings will be held on the first Sunday of each month at 3:30 in the Library. The first will be this afternoon.

A copy of the schedule is in your mail slots. Please place the schedule on your calendars. We really appreciate the work of each of you and the desire to improve our service to the Kingdom.

WINGS

The next meeting of WINGS will be held on November 2, at 6:30 p.m. at a place to be determined. Remember to bring a snack and your Bible.

Young ladies participating in GIFTS for Lads to Leaders made centerpieces for the dining tables at Enon Manor this past Thursday night. Thanks to Jordan Alley, Ashton Glover, Shelby Glover, Bristol Kelley and Kaitlyn Roe with the help of Lauren Boston, Debra Rigby and Trish Scull for making the arrangements. We want to also thank the ladies who attended the WINGS meeting for bringing flowers, etc., and Debra Rigby who donated the pots to make the arrangements. They were beautiful and the young ladies made an arrangement for the church building with left over material.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS JOY: Thanks to all ladies who participated in OCJ! We filled 41 boxes this year. The ladies who attended WINGS last night got them all wrapped and ready to go to Montgomery for shipping.

We need a volunteer for 2018 to head up OCJ. See Sharon if you would like to do this.

UPCOMING EVENTS

November 10-12
Cost is $35

EXPOSURE YOUTH CAMP:

If you signed up to go to Exposure please turn your money in to Casey. The cost is $85 per person.

If you have any questions about the trips ask Casey!

BIBLE STUDY:

High School - 10/12 @ Church Building 7:00 pm
Middle School - 10/19 @ Church Building 6:30 pm

ANNUAL CHURCH COOKOUT

The picnic is at Blue Angel Park off Hwy 98 at 2100 Bronson Rd. on Saturday, October 14. The main course will be smoked pulled pork. Please bring your favorite sides, desserts and drinks. Swimming is available and if you like bring a chair, but come enjoy the view, the food and the fellowship. We will eat at 11:15 but have the pavilion from 9-3. There is a sign up sheet in the foyer so we can get an accurate count of those who are attending. The gate fee will already be paid. Tell the guard you are attending the Scenic Hills Church of Christ Cookout.

Baby Shower - Girl

There will be a Baby Shower in honor of 'mom to be' Jessica Garrett on Sunday, November 5 at 3:00 p.m. Jessica and Josh are expecting their first child, a girl, Karsyn, in November.

If you would like to assist in giving the shower, please see Lauren Boston.

THANK YOU

On behalf of Park Central Church of Christ in Port Arthur, we thank you for your generous gift of $3,200. Your kindness allows us to offer financial help to people in our congregation and community whose homes were flooded. Deacon David Lindsey and his team have been able to provide the much needed and much appreciated assistance to 25 households to date.
